The first on a warrant issued by the police judge of Versailles, and the latter on a warrant issued by Squire J. W. Bohannon upon information given by Fields after his arrest. Both men confessed their guilt, in the presence of several witnesses, after they were arrested. They were taken to Versailles that afternoon for trial.

The Wilbur Opera Company came and saw and conquered, and their efforts were patronized by large and well-pleased audiences. The reputation they have achieved elsewhere was fully endorsed here. Edited at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.
FRANKFORT, JANUARY 3, 1885.

Mrs. Letitia Church, mother of Messrs. Church Brothers, died at the family residence, on Main street, Thursday evening.

Death of Geo. Craddock.

The sad news was received by Judge G. W. Craddock on Saturday morning that his son George, who has been residing near Monterey, Owen county, for the past year, had been shot and dangerously wounded the evening before in a fight with a neighbor. He immediately left for Monterey, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Laura, and Mr. Mark Calmes, and arrived there only in time to see him die.

No one saw the difficulty except a little son of the man who fired the fatal shot, and it is hard to learn the exact facts in the case. It seems that George had a fuss with a man by the name of John Rice, who lives between the Craddock farm and Monterey, several weeks ago, while at Rice's house, in an intoxicated condition, and that bloodshed at that time was only prevented by Rice's wife. Friday both men were in Monterey and both left for home about the same time, George a short distance in advance. When he arrived at Rice's house he got down and went in, and Mrs. Rice seeing him coming fastened the door. He began knocking at the door, when Rice sent his little boy, who was with him, out to tell George he was not at home and to go away. As Craddock paid no attention to the boy, and bent on the door harder, Rice came on up and attempted to get him away from the house, when he claims George attacked him with a knife, and to save his own life he drew his pistol and fired, the ball striking Craddock on the left side of the nose and ranging back, inflict a wound that proved fatal the next day at four o'clock.

The remains were brought to this city and interred in the family lot in the Cemetery Monday afternoon. Rice went to Monterey and surrendered to the officers of that place.

Barn Burning.

Owing to the number of tobacco barns that were being burned in Woodford county the past fall, an association, composed of the following gentlemen: S. T. Levy, G. M. Einick, C. T. Freeman, J. L. Cogar, Jno. O. Rodgers, Henry Nesser, Jno. J. Rodgers, W. T. McConnell, T. M. Parish, Jno. Steele, W. T. Davis, Sam H. Shouse, Jno. R. McKey, W. E. Rogers, all farmers of Woodford county, was organized for their own protection, and a reward of $1,000 offered for the arrest and conviction of any person who should burn the barn of any member of the association, but for a long time failed to catch any of the incendiaries. A few days since they were informed that if they would offer $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the man who set fire to the barn of Mr. Black Graves, near Midway, who was not a member of their association, that he would be caught. Mr. Graves guaranteed $200 of the amount, and the association the balance, and the result was the arrest near Midway of not only the man who burned Mr. Graves' barn but one who confessed to the burning of the barn of Major Einick, a member of the association, and also to the capture of two men in this city on Wednesday, charged with barn burning in that county.

As these thirteen gentlemen pledged themselves to pay this reward for the purpose of getting rid of a lot of scoundrels who, if left alone, would soon have destroyed every barn in the country, it is not just that they should be left to bear this burden alone. Every farmer largely interested in the raising of tobacco, no matter whether a resident of Woodford or not, and every fire insurance company doing business in this section should contribute to the fund. It is a matter of great importance to all of them that the country should be rid of these dangerous characters and a few men should not be allowed to pay all the expense of having them brought to justice.

The following officers were elected by the Masonic Lodges in this city on Saturday evening, December 27th:

HILHAM, NO. 4.
Geo. A. Lewis, W. M.
V. A. Kaltenbrun, S. W.
H. G. Mattern, J. W.
W. T. Readling, Tres.
E. Whitesides, Sec'y.
Sidney French, S. D.
Peter Light, J. D.
Gus. Schaefer, S & T.
ESOTERIC, NO. 582.
Jas. A. Murray, W. M.
R. M. Grant, S. W.
W. S. Caplinger, J. W.
U. Keenan, Treas.
Oscar Hemmocut, Sec'y.
W. H. Phythian, S. D.
J. E. Kershaw, J. D.
Gus. Schaefer, S & T.

The Master of Hilham Lodge was re-elected for his seventh term, and the Master of Esoteric for his third. After both Lodges had finished their business Mr. Jas. A. Murray, who had just been elected Master of Esoteric Lodge, invited the brothers when they had "called from labor," to go with him to Butler's Hotel, where he had prepared refreshments for them. The supper was gotten up in handsome style, and was greatly enjoyed by twenty-five of the brethren. At the close toasts were given and responded to, and every one went away wishing Jim a long life and many re-elections.

The Hop given by the young men of the city at the Capitol Hotel on Tuesday evening was well attended and passed off very pleasantly indeed. In addition to a large number of our home young people many ladies and gentlemen from other places were in attendance. The ladies who participated in the dance were Misses Maggie Clay and Lake Barnes, of Paris, Miss Fannie Tuley, of New Albany, Indiana, Miss Annie Middleton, of Louisville, Misses Jennie and Willie Robb, of Woodford, Miss Jenny Puttens, of Lexington, and Misses, Mary Eliza Gordon, of Tennessee, Miss Mary Belle Wallace, of Louisville, Miss Westfall, of New York, and Misses Cordie Cannon, Lena Stewart, Little Todd, Kate and Nellie Sanders, Lillian Sawyer, Anna Duvall, Mattie Crutchfield, Joe Gray, Bass Markham, Little Stanton, Ruby Macklin, Maggie Taylor, Emily Thomas, Marie Hardie, Mrs. Geo. V. Triplett, and Miss Fannie Murphy, of this city.

The gentlemen were Mr. Donnegan, of Louisville, Mr. Hall, of Hurrocksburg, Judge L. W. McKee, of Lawrenceburg, Mr. Gilbert Martin, of Woodford, Mr. Rob. Berryman, of Versailles, H. C. McDowell, Jr., of Lexington, and Messrs. Geo. L. Payne, Gray McLean, Henry Murray, Grant Green, Jr., Joe and John Roddum, Ed. Stanton, Walter Franklin, Jr., Buford Hendrick, Sherwood Major, Lucius Waggoner, Jr., Henry Sawyer, John Stewart, — Hoge, Thos. Green, Crittenden and Jas. M. Todd, Will Lindsey, John Murphy, Ed. H. Grant, Full Taylor, R. W. McBerry, Wallace Middleton, W. C. Sned, Eugene S. Ashton, Hon. Geo. V. Triplett, Dr. J. W. Murtry and Dr. J. S. Collins, of this city.

There were a number of strange gentlemen who danced, as well ladies who were in attendance and did not dance, whose names we did not learn

A CARD!

ON THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, 1885,

I will adopt a new system in my business, and after that date,

SELL STRICTLY FOR CASH.

The credit plan has been so abused in the past few years that it is no longer to the interest of either the buyer or seller to continue it. Besides its being a constant annoyance to the merchant, it is a very expensive luxury to the cash and prompt paying credit customers, as they have not only to pay a fair profit on all the goods they buy, but an additional profit to make up for money lost on those customers who don't pay at all, and to pay for book-keepers, collectors, and all other expenses of the credit system. In making this change I am sure that it is in the interest of my customers, if not to myself, as I will save them on all future purchases at least 5 to 25 per cent.

Thanking my old friends for their kind support in the past, and hoping to receive their patronage in the future by serving them faithfully, I am

Respectfully,

L. B. MARSHALL,

Successor to Marshall & Meagher.

Nose Eaten Off.

A young man named John Naves, living near here, had an eating cancer in his nose, which increased rapidly until most of his cheek, and extended up nearly to his eye. It was one of the most angry eating sores that I had ever seen. His throat finally became involved in such an extent that he could only swallow liquid food. After using all the remedies without cheking the progress of the恶疾 cancer, he grew weak with loss of appetite, he was confined to his bed, and thought it to be only a question of time about his death from the cancer. I put him on Swift's Specific as a last resort, and began to improve with the first dose, and gradually improved at each dose, and rapidly his disease was stopped; it began to heal around the edges; and after a few months, treatment with S. S. S. he has gotten entirely well. His face is all healed over with new flesh, and his general health is excellent. His recovery is wonderful.
